

New Community
Career & Technical Institute
 Life-Changing Careers Are Here

Online Patient Care Technician Program
Session Begins May 11!

newcommunitytech.edu
973-824-6484

Financial Aid Available for Those Who Qualify!

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- 790 program hours covering administering direct patient care and performing any other duties deemed necessary to provide optimal patient care and physician service.
- Students will attain certification as home health aides, phlebotomy technicians and EKG technicians.

CERTIFICATIONS/CREDENTIALS

- National Healthcareer Association (NHA)
- American Medical Certification Association (AMCA)
- American Red Cross Basic Life Support/CPR Certification

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- Must be at least 18 years old
- Have a high school diploma or equivalent
- Provide proof of citizenship

COURSE STRUCTURE

Students complete the online learning curriculum followed by clinical and work-based learning activities at the NCCTI Main Campus, 274 South Orange Ave., Newark.

SUPPLIES PROVIDED

Students will receive Chromebooks and medical supplies (including stethoscopes and blood pressure kits). National exam fees will also be covered by tuition.

KEY PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- Career pathways in an in-demand occupation
- Industry recognized credentials
- Connection to a host of employers

For more information, call 973-824-6484 or visit newcommunitytech.edu

New Community Career & Technical Institute is an accredited postsecondary career and technical institution with the U.S. Department of Education, N.J. Department of Education, N.J. Department of Labor, U.S. Veterans Administration and the Council on Occupational Education (COE).

Our Mission: To improve the quality of life of all students through education and occupational training in a community that fosters life-long learning.

New Community Career & Technical Institute
 274 South Orange Ave., Newark, NJ 07103
 973-824-6484
 newcommunitytech.edu

